

BEL boxers hold their own

Two members of the BEL Boxing Club did battle Saturday at a ring event at the Eastside Boxing Club in Cornwall.

BEL's Keegan Shewfelt met Montreal's Grant Brothers Boxing Club box Felix Laurent, both weighing in at 158 pounds. In the first round, Shewfelt began with a cautious approach. However, he quickly advanced, taking a more aggressive stance and overtook the Montreal boxer with an unanimous decision.

Meanwhile, BEL's Derek Lennox of Lakefield met Mathieu LaRivierre for an exciting three rounds. LaRivierre started with fast advancing punches. However, Lennox was able to hold his ground with powerful uppercuts and dominating left hooks. Lennox's performance was hindered when he took some penalties for holding. However, he was still able to record a split decision win.

Pierre Bartkowiak